Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network Retreat

Planning and Implementation of the Every Student Succeeds Act: Next Steps for States and Districts

Wye River Conference Center
600 Aspen Drive
Queenstown, MD 21658
P: 410-827-7400

August 8-10, 2017

AGENDA

Retreat Goals:

- Understand how states are creating and implementing their Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) plans and how they will monitor implementation at different levels of the system.
- Understand states' theories of action around the design of ESSA accountability systems—including the new English language proficiency indicator—and the development of approaches to school improvement.
- Engage in active learning and build working relationships with education leaders from the field, as well as with colleagues from different parties and chambers.
- Explore potential roles for Congress and the U.S. Department of Education (ED) in monitoring and guidance around ESSA Implementation.

12:00 PM Arrival and Check-In

12:30 – 1:00 PM Lunch

1:15 – 1:45 PM Welcome, Overview, and Retreat Objectives

Ross Wiener, Vice President and Executive Director, Aspen Institute Education & Society Program

To guide the retreat's discussion, Congressional staffers and faculty members will begin by sharing their top two learning objectives for the convening.

1:45 – 3:15 PM Session I: Setting the Context

Kirsten Baesler, Superintendent of Public Instruction, North Dakota
Sharmila Mann, Director, K-12 Institute, Education Commission on the States
Jake Yunker, Deputy Policy Director, Office of Governor Mary Fallin of Oklahoma

Guiding Questions:

- How is ESSA state plan development and implementation integrated with other state-level policy priorities?
- How did feedback from stakeholders inform states' approaches? How did states engage governors?
- What lessons have states learned from the peer review process? What can states planning to submit plans in September learn from April submissions?
- What are the potential implications of future leadership changes (i.e., gubernatorial elections, state chief turnover) on ESSA implementation?

3:15 – 3:45 PM

Break and Individual reflection

3:45 – 5:00 PM

Session II: Designing and Implementing Accountability Systems that Support School Improvement

Veronica Garcia, Superintendent, Santa Fe Public Schools
Betheny Lyke, Executive Director, Illinois Center for School Improvement
Kunjan Narechania, Assistant Louisiana State Superintendent & Louisiana Recovery School District Superintendent

Guiding Questions:

- What are states' theories of action around their accountability systems?
- How did state education agencies (SEAs) determine what measures to include in their formal accountability systems and what measures to informally report on? What changes might SEAs make in the future? What is the data quality and capacity needed to clearly and accurately report on these measures?
- How are states and district planning to move from identifying schools for improvement under the accountability system to improving outcomes for students?

5:00 – 5:20 PM

Taking stock: Staff reflections and feedback to guide remaining discussions

6:30 PM
